

The Location of the Nasogastric Feeding Tube

This drawing shows the Nasogastric feeding tube and its placement site. The tube enters through the nose and the tip of the tubes rests in the stomach.

Reprinted with permission from the Home Tube Feeding Handbook © 2003
Saint Joseph Mercy Health System, Ann Arbor, MI