

ASPEN Exhibitor Advisory Council Application

New for 2019, the American Society for Parenteral and Enteral Nutrition (ASPEN) has created the Exhibitor Advisory Council (EAC) to represent our exhibiting companies and provide a voice for this important group of stakeholders. Members of the EAC act as advisors to show management on the latest industry trends, policies and procedures and act as a liaison to communicate exhibitors' interests to ASPEN staff.

ASPEN is actively looking to fill 8-10 seats on this new committee. Openings for the 2019 EAC are:

- Four to five (4-5) companies that occupy 100 square feet (10'x10' booth)
- Three to four (3-4) companies that occupy between 200 - 400 square feet (10'x20' or 20'x20' booth)
- One to two (1-2) company that occupies over 400 square feet (20'x30' booth or larger)

Eligibility requirements for council members are as follows:

1. Must exhibit at the ASPEN 2019 Nutrition Science and Practice Conference
2. Must have exhibited at the previous two ASPEN conferences
3. Appointee must be a full-time employee of the exhibiting company (no contractors)
4. Appointee has job responsibilities directly related to the exhibit company's participation at the conference

Applications should be submitted to Valerie Mickiewicz at valeriem@nutritioncare.org no later than Wednesday, June 15, 2018.
