MAKING AN IMPACT IN NUTRITION THERAPIES

FUNDING RESEARCH GRANTS

The ASPEN Rhoads Research Foundation awards grants for both basic science-oriented investigations aimed at improving our understanding of the science of nutrient regulation in different disease states, as well as clinical and translational research to determine how the practice of nutrition can be refined and individualized to optimize clinical outcomes. The Foundation relies on generous contributions to support its initiatives.

Our campaign, Inspiring the Next Generation of Investigators to Drive the Therapies of Tomorrow, raised $1,001,000 as of January 2019, adding $725,000 to the endowment (a 73% increase from 2016). The three-year campaign officially concluded at the ASPEN 2019 Nutrition and & Science Practice Conference (ASPEN19), March 23-26, 2019 in Phoenix, Arizona.

With the support of our donors, the Foundation continues to fund research grants to drive discovery in nutrition therapy, metabolic support, and other clinical nutrition research. This research is essential to improving clinical outcomes and creating healthier, better-nourished patients and consumers.

“The ASPEN Rhoads Research Foundation gives investigators the opportunity to begin to generate valuable data that wouldn't otherwise be funded due to limited federal or foundation funding in support of nutrition research.”

Joseph Boullata, PharmD, RPH, BCNSP, FASPEN

“We need funding such as that offered by the ASPEN Rhoads Research Foundation to ensure our focus area of medicine continues to grow and thrive. We owe it to the many who are still struggling to manage their daily nutritional needs.”

Have you considered a gift in your will? Your will is a powerful way to continue your support. A gift in your will, also called a bequest, works well if you believe in our mission but wish not to part with your resources today. If you would like more information on a bequest or other gifts that can save you in taxes, please contact the Foundation office.
